

Visa regulations for entry into the Republic of Yemen

Prior to applying for a visa visitors must attain approval from the Visa Section of the Immigration, Passport and nationality authority (PNA) of the Ministry of Interior. This approval must be done through the partner in Yemen.

- For a business visa, the business partner
- For a visitor's visa, the organization or person who issues the invitation
- For a tourist visa, a travel agency in Yemen
- For a study visa, the language institute in Yemen

As soon the approval is attained, the following documents would be needed:

- Your passport in original which must have a minimum validity of 6 months at the time of entry into Yemen
- 1 application form duly filled in and signed together with a current photograph
- A copy of the bank transfer for visa fees, 40,- € for a single entry visa and 80,- € for a multiple entry visa.
- A prepaid, self-addressed envelope for the return of your passport per registered mail.
